

For Gallantry

For Gallantry

Members of The Royal Winnipeg Rifles have been recognized and decorated for acts of bravery since the founding of the Regiment during one of its first engagements, the Nile Campaign. Soldiers efforts and acts have been decorated by Canada and Britain alike, with the United States, France, The Netherlands and Belgium also recognized meritorious conduct from soldiers of the Regiment.

Click on the poppy for a complete listing of awards issued to soldiers of The Royal Winnipeg Rifles

For details of currently issued Canadian honours, visit the Canadian Forces Directorate of Honours and Recognition. Historic honours are available at the Veterans Affairs Canada website.