

Regimental Museum

Thanks for visiting – the Museum is currently under renovation

The Museum is currently under 100% renovation. The plan features new galleries and interactive spaces with a particular interest in telling the history of the Regiment as well as the stories of the soldiers who served. We should re-open in Spring 2018.

We're still accepting donations! If you have artefacts or paper files pertaining to the Royal Winnipeg Rifles or its soldiers, we would be very interested in discussing with you a potential donation. In many cases, a tax receipt can be issued for the value of the donation.

CONTACTS:

Please note that we will respond to all e-mail but, as we are open one day a week, it may take a day or two to get back to you. Thanks for your patience.
