

Battalion Headquarters

The Royal Winnipeg Rifles is a Primary Reserve Infantry Regiment of the Canadian Forces, which includes a Brass and Reed Band. In its 125 plus year history, the Regiment has seen and been involved in many conflicts in service to Crown and Country. Any military organization depends on its leadership to function, and The Royal Winnipeg Rifles are no different.

The Battalion Headquarters is in overall command of the unit, including Headquarters Company and A Company. The Battalion Headquarters consists of the Commanding Officer and Deputy Commanding Officer, the Regimental Sergeant-Major, the Adjutant, Drill Sergeant-Major, and Orderly Room and Operations and Training Staff.
